

LOOK IN HERE

Kent Parker

All the mysteries you have left to lose.
Questions that remain, answers you can choose.
Puzzle of the day gets harder in the night.
Here's a clue, what's real is true... hope you get it right.

Take a look in here. Take a look and see.
It will all be clear, clear as it can be.
Pull your blinders down.
Let your mind go free.
Take your time, you will find everything you need.

A fork in the road. No sign to mark the way,
Or tell you where to go unless you want to stay.
Padlock on the door, but you have the key.
Unlock the lock, no need to knock... you'll get the third degree.

Take a look in here. Take a look and see.
It will all be clear, clear as it can be.
Pull your blinders down.
Let your mind go free.
Take your time, you will find everything you need.
